

Drama School Bursary Application

All young people deserve to be seen, to be heard and to matter. Consequently, Young People's Theatre seeks to reduce barriers such as cost to participation in its programs. The Drama School's annual bursary fund is allocated with fairness in mind, and with the goal of granting as many opportunities as possible for children and youth to express themselves theatrically and discover the power of their own creative voice and imagination.

Bursary applications will be held in complete confidence.

Please make sure to complete this form BEFORE registering online. Once received, the Drama School will reach out to you.
